

Meeting

I was surprised,
really surprised!

About what?
About that moment,
that another being experienced something,
and that I in my endeavours to help, was myself helped.

That it gave a vision or a view that something great would happen, almost timeless,
a similarity with the spirit or the spiritual.

But here was greatness, a realization that the impossible would happen, something very special.

And that moment could not easily be held.
But this greatness which said that this was grand,
and that everything else was less than it,
gradually downwards,
that was the spirit and the spiritual,
and from there I can move limitlessly ahead, and form it along the way.

But it was meeting with a spirit, and from there on things can flow and be handled and accordingly be arranged.
It does not even need to be kept there It was greatness again.

Recognition of a great man or spirit, flowing out as affinity,
the only way to express it.

But it will be there and go on from there, until new meeting on an even higher level, and from there on source to new life.

Always circling upwards towards Truth Truth Truth.

Einar